- IBS's online courses are offered in "real-time," i.e., they begin and end with the regular semester, and proceed with weekly instruction. Students enrolling in online courses must begin participation at the start of the term.

NOTICE CONCERNING TRANSFERABILITY OF CREDITS AND CREDENTIALS EARNED AT OUR INSTITUTION

The transferability of credits you earn at the Institute of Buddhist Studies is at the complete discretion of an institution to which you may seek to transfer. Acceptance of the Certificate in Buddhist Chaplaincy is also at the complete discretion of the institution to which you may seek to transfer. If the certificate you earn at this institution is not accepted at the institution to which you seek to transfer, you may be required to repeat some or all of your coursework at that institution. For this reason you should make certain that your attendance at this institution will meet your educational goals. This may include contacting an institution to which you may seek to transfer after attending the Institute of Buddhist Studies to determine if your credits or certificate will transfer.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has a right to cancel this agreement and obtain a refund. You may cancel this contract, and receive a refund by submitting a written notice to this school by 5 pm of the day following the first day of scheduled instruction, or the seventh day after beginning of instruction, whichever is later. Your notice must be written and clearly state that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement. Your notice must be delivered to the Office of the Dean. If delivery of the cancellation form is sent by post (2140 Durant Avenue, Berkeley, CA 94704), the notice must be postmarked on or before the date notice is required.

- In addition a student may withdraw from the school after instruction has started and receive a pro rata refund (less the withdrawal fee amount of $100) for the unused portion of the tuition and of other refundable charges if the student has been enrolled for 60% or less of the period of instruction.
- IBS will refund money collected from a third party on the student's behalf to that third party. If IBS cancels or discontinues a course or educational program, the school will make a full refund of all charges. Refunds will be paid within 30 days of cancellation or withdrawal.
- Students receiving loans or other financial aid through the GTU Financial Aid Office may be subject to additional restrictions (as for example per loan agreement) and must both check with and inform that office upon withdrawal from the program. It is the student's responsibility to repay the full amount of any federal or state loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. If a student defaults on a federal or state loan, the agency may take action (including wage garnishment) against the student, and they may not receive any other governmental financial aid at another educational institution until the loan is repaid.

The last date to cancel this agreement and receive a refund is 09/16/16.

STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND (STRF)

You must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you:

1. You are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans, and
2. Your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer such as an employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if either of the following applies:

1. You are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program, or
2. Your total charges are paid by a third party, such as an employer, government program or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party.
