

Institute of Buddhist Studies
Reverend Russell Hamada Memorial Lecture

Death and Dying

The Meaning of Funerals and Hojis in Jodo Shinshu

Reverend Masao Kodani

Saturday, April 24, 2004

7:00 PM

Mountain View Buddhist Temple

575 No. Shoreline Blvd.
Mountain View, CA 94043

To mark the Seventh Year Service in memory of the late Reverend Russell Hamada, the Institute of Buddhist Studies is pleased to offer a public lecture by his Dharma friend and mentor, Reverend Masao Kodani of the Senshin Buddhist Temple.

Reverend Kodani will explain everything there is to know about the funeral and family memorial service (hoji) in Jodo Shinshu: Why do we hold them? What religious meaning do they have? How should they be performed?

If you have ever had questions like these, please join us on April 24. Admission is free and everyone is invited. A light reception will follow.

For more information, contact IBS at:
(650) 938-7192
Shin-IBS.edu

Sponsored by
The Reverend Russell Hamada Memorial Endowment
for the IBS Center for Contemporary Shin Buddhist Studies